

Chamber Hosts Canadian Consul General Sylvia Cesaratto for Trade Talks

The Chamber of Commerce of the Palm Beaches recently hosted Canadian Consul General Sylvia Cesaratto and Senior Trade Commissioner Mark Strasser for an insightful discussion with its Trustees on U.S.-Canada trade relations. The conversation covered key topics such as tariffs, economic partnerships, and the evolving trade landscape, providing valuable perspectives for local business leaders. The event underscored the Chamber's commitment to fostering global connections and creating opportunities that strengthen both local businesses and international collaboration.

Sold Out Crowd at State of the City Breakfast

Chamber President & CEO Michael Zeff, Mayor Keith James and Chamber Chairman of the Board Michael Davis COURTESY OF © CAPEHART PHOTOGRAPHY

The 2025 State of the City Breakfast was a sold-out success! With 800 attendees, it was a morning filled with insightful discussions, strategic growth initiatives, and valuable networking opportunities. Mayor Keith James delivered a thoughtful and inspiring speech about transformation through togetherness and highlighted key accomplishments and opportunities shaping West Palm Beach's future.

A special thank you to our presenting sponsor Good Samaritan Medical Center and Wellington Florist for the beautiful center pieces.

Together, we are fostering connections for members, supporting businesses, and driving growth to ensure a thriving and prosperous community.
