TRUSTEE SPOTLIGHT

Veronica Vidal

Born in Buenos Aires, Argentina, Veronica Vidal grew up in a multicultural family shaped by the resilience of immigrants from Spain and Argentina's rural provinces. She earned a degree in stage design, taught art, and worked in Argentina's transportation sector before moving to Palm Beach County in 2001. After a brief period cleaning homes to support her young son, Veronica founded Custom Cleaning & Management Services (CCMS) in 2004 with only $50. Through determination and strategic use of small business programs, she built CCMS into a leader in public hygiene, sustainability, and innovation. A graduate of advanced programs at Goldman Sachs, Stanford, and Harvard Business School, Veronica now advocates for professional recognition within the cleaning industry and supports Hispanic women in the workforce.

Don't Miss the Inaugural West Palm Beach Mayor's Gala

Join us for an unforgettable evening of elegance, celebration, and civic pride at the Inaugural West Palm Beach Mayor's Gala. A new tradition honoring the leadership, growth, and entrepreneurial spirit of the capital city of Palm Beach County. This black-tie gala will bring together business, civic, and community leaders for an inspiring night of fine dining, live entertainment, and impactful storytelling, all in support of local innovation and economic opportunity. Proceeds will benefit two community-centered initiatives: The Chamber's Innovation Hub, which provides education, mentorship, and peer support to local entrepreneurs, and the Mayor's Jumpstart Academy, which provides microgrants and training to small business owners across the city.

Turning Signature Events into Economic Engines

The discussion was moderated in front of a sold-out crowd by sports anchor Theo Dorsey of ESPN West Palm, who guided a panel of industry leaders with firsthand experience producing high-profile events. Panelists included Mike Bauer of Roger Dean Chevrolet Stadium, Todd Fleming representing the Cognizant Classic on the PGA TOUR, and Teneka James-Feaman of the West Palm Beach Downtown Development Authority.

Attendees gained a deeper understanding of how well-executed signature events extend beyond single-day attendance figures. By attracting visitors, generating media exposure, Business professionals, government officials, and civic leaders gathered at The Ben, Autograph Collection for a recent Built for Business Breakfast focused on the economic impact of major events in Palm Beach County. The program examined how large-scale sporting and community events serve as powerful drivers of tourism, investment, and long-term regional growth.

Panelists offered insights into the strategic planning, funding mechanisms, marketing initiatives, and cross-sector partnerships required to execute successful marquee events. The conversation emphasized the importance of collaboration among venues, event organizers, sponsors, public agencies, and the broader business community in maximizing economic returns and ensuring sustained community benefit.

supporting local businesses, and reinforcing the region's reputation as a premier destination, these events play a critical role in strengthening Palm Beach County's economic vitality.
