

SECURE YOUR SPOT AT THE 2026 BACK TO SCHOOL BREAKFAST!

Join The Chamber for the annual Back to School Breakfast, bringing together business and education leaders for an important conversation about the future of talent in Palm Beach County.

Superintendent Michael J. Burke will deliver his annual update on the School District of Palm Beach County, highlighting accomplishments from the past year and priorities for the 2026-2027 school year.

Following his remarks, Superintendent Burke will join a panel of leaders from higher education, workforce development, and the business community for a discussion on The Future of Talent: From Classroom to Career.

Date and Time: Friday, August 7, 2026
7:30 A.M. – 9:30 A.M.

Location: Raymond F. Kravis Center for the Performing Arts

701 Okeechobee Blvd., West Palm Beach,

THE CHAMBER UNVEILS REIMAGINED HEADQUARTERS TO FOSTER BUSINESS GROWTH AND CONNECTION

The Chamber of Commerce of the Palm Beaches has unveiled its newly reimagined headquarters, The Chamber Workplace Experience, created in partnership with Pradere Designer Workspaces. The transformed space reflects The Chamber's continued growth and its commitment to providing members with a dynamic environment to connect, collaborate, and do business.

Over the past year, The Chamber has welcomed more than 550 new members, expanded its programming, and launched new initiatives that continue to strengthen its role as Palm Beach County's leading business organization. Designed to support these growing opportunities, the new headquarters serves as a hub where meaningful conversations, professional relationships, and new ideas can thrive.

More than a workspace, The Chamber Workplace Experience represents an investment in the region's business community, creating a place where members have greater access to one another and to the resources that help businesses succeed.

LEADING THE CONVERSATION ON AI AND SMART INFRASTRUCTURE

The Chamber of Commerce of the Palm Beaches recently welcomed business leaders, entrepreneurs, elected officials, and professionals from across the region for its AI & Smart Infrastructure Breakfast on June 12, highlighting the technologies shaping the future of business.

Moderated by Anita Patel, CEO of Minerva Tec Group, the program featured technology leaders from NextEra Energy and Jet Aviation, who shared insights on the evolving role of artificial intelligence, cybersecurity, and digital infrastructure in today’s economy. The discussion explored emerging trends, real-world applications, and the importance of preparing organizations for an increasingly connected future. The breakfast reflected The Chamber’s commitment to connecting members with the people, conversations, education, and relationships that drive business success. By bringing together industry experts and decision-makers, the event provided attendees with meaningful opportunities to gain practical knowledge, expand their networks, and engage in conversations that matter.

At The Chamber, access is built in.
